Sample Letter to Share Your Accomplishment With Your Supervisor

Dear [insert boss or hospital administrator's name]:

I am proud to share that an article I have [authored or contributed to] has been published in the [issue name, e.g., March/April] issue of the Journal of Neuroscience Nursing (JNN). You can read my article at [insert link to article].

The JNN provides clinically applicable evidence-based research and has an impact factor of 1.627. It is the official journal of the American Association of Neuroscience Nurses (AANN); published in print six times per year; and a reference material maintained by hospitals, libraries, and universities.

The JNN publishes original articles on advances in neurosurgical and neurological techniques as they affect nursing care, theory, and research, as well as commentary on the roles of the neuroscience nurse in the healthcare team. The information is applicable to professionals working in clinical, research, administrative, and educational settings.

Thank you for celebrating in my accomplishment. Feel free to reach out to me with any questions.

Sincerely,

[your signature]

Support in Getting Published or Serving as a Reviewer

Support is available for aspiring authors and reviewers. If you would like to be paired with a member of the JNN Editorial Board for support with your manuscript or to ask questions about becoming a peer reviewer, please email info@aann.org.

The JNN welcomes new manuscript reviewers. If you would like to sign up to serve as a reviewer, please complete the new reviewer form and email it to info@aann.org.

Support for Your Nursing Research Project

The Agnes Marshall Walker Foundation (AMWF) is dedicated to supporting neuroscience nursing through education, research, professional development, and certification to promote excellence in patient care.

The AMWF Research Grant is awarded to a neuroscience nurse to provide financial assistance to neuroscience nursing research projects that address the clinical practice, educational, certification, or administrative dimensions of neuroscience nursing. Applications are due in late February each year at AMWF.org/grants. The total number of grant recipients will be determined by the AMWF Board of Directors.

Email grants@amwf.org with questions about the grant or the application.
